*Otto Brückner*TM stringed instruments

Introducing the latest addition to UMI's family of fine strings: the *Otto Brückner*TM violin, viola, and cello. Each of these outstanding instruments offers the following features:

- Pressed spruce and maple construction
- Master-crafted in Asia
- Fully inlaid ebony purfling
- Carved scrolls
- Ebony pegs, fingerboard, and tailpiece
- Strung with D'Addario Prelude steel strings with fine tuners
- Complete with Guarneri-style plastic chinrests
- Hand-adjusted to MENC specifications at the Scherl & Roth® shop in Elkhart, Indiana
- Available in instrument-only and full kit configurations

The cost-effectiveness of the new Otto Brückner instruments makes them especially well-suited to student instrument rental programs. Surely, Otto Brückner stringed instruments deserve to take their place alongside Scherl & Roth® and Hermann Beyer® in UMI's family of quality-crafted strings and accessories.

See the back of this sheet for full specifications. To learn more about Otto Brückner violins, violas, and cellos, contact your UMI district manager or call UMI today. Let Otto Brückner help put the profit back in your string business!

Affordable Elegance. Exceptional Value.
